

If you like to use that word to describe the country of Singapore, words that could only be a "unique". Is a dynamic city with many contrasting characters and vivid colors, you'll find here the harmonious blend of culture, cuisine, art and architecture. Always full of energy, dynamic small island nation in Southeast Asia this represents the essence of both Eastern culture & West.

Travel Consulting Singapore - Singapore Travel Guide

Just one day visit here, you will feel the image of the island in the past and future, to race from the area to the bustling business center, from the peaceful garden for to the charming skyscraper.

Let's start your day with a delicious breakfast between luxuriant gardens with the notes Xue rare orangutans can only be found in Singapore. And look a bit nostalgic atmosphere when you step into the temple of the Chinese tradition, the mosque, Hindu temple and Christian church - all in the same area in area.

Let's go back to the present, walking along Orchard Road, access to the latest fashion trends and watch the local slogan across the aisle.

A popular meal on a traditional boat floating on the Singapore River will bring you an unforgettable feeling. Please leave your ship and released into the air at a height of 60m with the game "bungy jumping" Thrilling! The game gloating smile is waiting for you to explore the city on a flight vehicle "Duck" amphibious, along with a fun guide.

After a day of fun activities, ask yourself a reward for his performance in relaxing spa atmosphere of calm and serenity in the spa center of our praise, just a short distance from the shopping center well world.

After a break to relax, spend at least an hour to enjoy the ritual of tea drinking by Chinese customs before entering the theater to see world-class music programs Broadway.

With its friendly people and hospitality, with modern infrastructure and new changes are happening everyday, Singapore is really tourist destination unique.